

Meaningful Connections

Don't miss this engaging presentation, featuring top experts in dementia care and seasoned improv actors who specialize in elevating the caregiving experience.

Learn how to interpret and respond to behavioral expressions, using personalized strategies to improve connections and the well-being of persons living with dementia. Explore the transformative power of improvisation in dementia caregiving. Gain practical tools to enrich communication with your loved one, deepen your bond and reduce stress.

Thursday, March 6, 2025 • 10 a.m.–Noon

Dementia Care and Education Campus

3811 N 44th St., Phoenix, AZ 85018

Discussion on Behaviors with Maribeth Gallagher: 10–10:30 a.m.

Creative Connections with Improv Actors: 10:30–11:30 a.m.

Panel discussion: 11:30 a.m.–Noon

Featuring: Hospice of the Valley Dementia Program Director Maribeth Gallagher, Alzheimer's Association Program Director Kinsey McManus, and professional improv actors Sally Jo Bannow and Brian E. Sweis.

Maribeth Gallagher

Kinsey McManus

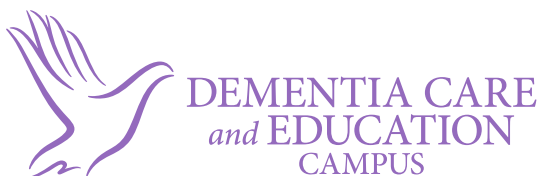

Sally Jo Bannow

Brian E. Sweis

For questions or to register: email events@dementiacampus.org or call (602) 767-8300

Offered at no charge. Registration preferred, but walk-ins welcome. Respite for your loved one may be available, call for information.

3811 N. 44th St. Phoenix, AZ 85018 (602) 767-8300 dementiacampus.org

An innovation of Hospice of the Valley

